and

College of Missions

A graduate institution for the scientific study of all the theological discipline in preparation for the Christian ministry.

For the professional training of men and women for Christian service in home and foreign fields, offering special opportunities to college and university graduates.

The charter granted by the State of New Jersey empowers it to exercise all the rights, prerogatives and powers of a University, and the Trustees and Faculty are now seeking to develop a THEOLOGICAL UNIVERSITY.

In connection with the Theological Seminary, and in co-operation with the Board of Foreign Missions and the Board of Home Missions and Church Extensions, a COLLEGE OF MISSIONS has been established with sixteen regular professors, instructors and lecturers.

In the Theological Seminary, courses are offered leading to the Degrees of Bachelor of Divinity, Master of Theology, and Doctor of Theology.

In the College of Missions, courses leading to the Degree of Master of Arts, and in affiliation with Columbia and New York Universities, the most extensive courses in America leading to the Degrees of Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy.

The Trustees have entered upon a campaign for TWO MILLION DOLLARS, imperatively needed at once, and for an additional Three Millions for development. Somebody must pay for what the Church expects Drew to give its students practically without cost to them.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

College of Puget Sound

The College of Puget Sound has made steady progress toward the realization of the high ideals of instruction and in equipment set by its president. There has been increased enrollment and the prospect is that a larger number will be enrolled this year. The Faculty has been strengthened and increased in number. The academic recognition is constantly improving. Its graduates are successful in many parts of the world.

Forty Thousand Dollars have been subscribed during the past year toward fulfilling the condition made by the General Education Board that $250,000 should be subscribed this year. This conference extends its congratulations and expression of the relation it holds by the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, During the past few years the Puget Sound Annual Confeernce, with its constituency, has secured subscriptions for the College of Puget Sound for more than $1,250,000 for buildings and endowment; and

WHEREAS, The General Education Board, (Rockefeller Foundation) has offered to the College of Puget Sound a gift of a quarter million dollars for endowment, conditioned that a like amount be subscribed during the calendar year, 1922; and

WHEREAS, The College of Puget Sound is a valuable asset, of the largest service and broadest usefulness to our churches in the Columbia River Annual Conference, as well as to the entire Pacific Northwest; and

WHEREAS, The General Education Board has conditioned its pledge upon the completion of the subscription of the entire half million unit by January 1, 1923, and since we believe that a goodly number of our people will rally to this emergency when it is properly placed before them;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

minutes were made the Official Journal of the session.

(1) That a committee be appointed by the Columbia River Annual Conference, composed of the Bishop, the District Superintendents and one pastor and one layman from each district of the conference located in Washington and Northern Idaho, to cooperate with the College of Puget Sound and assist in a quiet quest for subscriptions during the year 1922-1923, among our people who may be interested in the completion of the unit of $500,000, based on the challenge of the General Education Board.

(2) That if later it shall appear necessary, in order to meet all the conditions of the challenge of the General Education Board, this conference will put on a movement to raise at least $150,000, including the subscriptions secured during the quest authorized by this resolution, all to be applied toward the endowment and equipment of the College of Puget Sound, Tacoma, Washington; provided that a conference wide intenseive campaign shall not be organized without authorization by this conference.

The committee nominated Rev. W. B. Young, Yakima, Washington and Mr. Frank B. Babcock, Ewan, Washington for election to the Board of Trustees; and Rev. L. Morgan Chambers, Spokane, and the Pastor of Wenatchee for Visitors for this conference.

Kimball School of Theology

The report from Kimball School of Theology that the courses of instruction have been standardized to conform to the University Senate requirements, that the number of the teaching staff has been doubled, that the number of life service recruits taking class room instruction has been increased more than one hundred percent, is cause for rejoicing and congratulation.

We note with grave concern the dearth of candidates for the ministry. We urge all of our pastors to seek out their most promising young men and present to them the claims of the ministry, and to turn their attention to the Kimball School.

We approved the following action taken by the special committee which was raised by the Joint Commission appointed by the nine Northwest Conferences last fall to study the religious educational situation in this territory:

"The Committee appointed by the Commission at Spokane, beg to submit the following recommendations:

"That Kimball School of Theology and the Northwest Training School be consolidated into a school of training for Christian service.

"We recommend to the trustees of the two institutions involved that they take steps loking towards this consolidation.

"We invite proposals for the location of such consolidated institutions from the four Methodist Colleges of the Northwest.

"We commend the policy of the two institutions already indicated of harmonizing as far as possible their financial appeal, thus avoiding the overlapping of territory, and recommend a continuation of this practice.

"We commend the example of the Oregon, Columbia River and Pacific German Conferences in devoting a percentage of their Conference Educational collections to institutions devoted especially to training of Christian service; and recommend that the other conferences in our territory follow their example.

"We recommend to the annual conferences the continuation of the commission with power to act; and nominate as our members J. W. Caughlin, H. O. Perry, and H. V. Carpenter.

"Pending the consummation of plans for consolidation, each school is encouraged to contiune and extend its work on present lines."

We nominate C. C. Curry and R. L. Brainerd as trustees of Kimball School of Theology.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Columbia River Conference takes a laudable pride in Willamette University. It is outstanding evidence that religion and learning can still be united to produce educated men and women who are both safe and efficient.

Last year in the regular semesters 568 students were enrolled. nearly a hundred of whom went from our territory. High standards in scholarship and Christian conduct have been maintained. The patrons so appreciate these qualities as to overcrowd the school and the trustees have felt that honest service to the students requires a limited enrollment until the facilities are increased. Consequently a Forward Movement to secure $1,250,000 for new endowment and buildings is now under way. We rejoice in this action of the trustees and commend the movement to our people as worthy of their gifts. Alumni and other friends of Willamette in this Conference will wish to share in this enterprise and we shall welcome the representatives who offer them the opportunity.

For trustees we nominate J. W. Caughlin for the term expiring in 1925, and Robert Brumblay for the term expiring 1926 and W. H. H. Forsyth for the term expiring 1927.

For Conference visitors we nominate John G. Law, and C. C. Curry.

Boys' School

Three years ago the Conferences of the Portland area went on record favoring the establishing of a Boys' School for the Pacific Northwest, at which time a commission was created to seek ways of establishing such school. From the inception of this movement interest was manifested, but because of the other interests of the conferences, the commission has not sought to prosecute its work vigorously.

Two years ago, because of the encouragement being given, both money and property being offered, our conference conferred upon its commission the right to elect a board of trustees, who should receive, acquire and administer what ever contributions might be made to the movement.

Last year our Conference increased the number of members on the Commission and continued the powers conferred the preceding year. During the year no difinite planned campaign or organized effort has been made to further the interests of the proposed schol, but certain property now being available and proposed school, but certain property now being available and believing the time has come when real activity must be started, wish to make the following recommendation:

That the enlarged Commission be continued with power already given, viz., the authority to elect a Board of Trustees who shall receive, acquire and administer whatever contributions may be made to the movement, and further that we express our conviction that the time has come for a forward movement to establish such school and that steps be taken looking toward its establishment at the earliest possible date. It is to be understood that the Conference does not, at any time by this action, agree to enter into any organized campaign for funds, but that it shall encourage the finding of friends and funds for the school.

We also recommend that M. J. Perdue, W. B. Young and Mrs. George Goble be elected for a term of three years as members of the Commission.

STATE OF THE CHURCH

Your committee on the State of the Church submits the following report:

Judging of the whole by that segment which comes under our immediate observation, we would say that the present condition of the Church is full of unrest and dissatisfaction and is fraught with grave danger. The high idealism of the War period was crystalized into the great Missionary movement of the Centenary. There has followed a time of economic readjustment and moral reaction which has not passed the church by. We have failed to retrench in our church financial campaigns but have increased the number of causes and the frequency of their presentation. The great danger is that we will measure the success of our church in terms of finance and statistical tables rather than in the spiritual approach to God. We find that the spirit of unrest has affected the ranks of the ministry and the spirit of sacrifice is lost in the self-seeking for the better place. In the face of these facts your committee recommends:

1. That every cause seeking financial aid be carefully scrutinized and every effort be made to retrench in the local church.

2. That a committee be raised to present a method of salary equalization which will give every man a living support and remedy the great disparity found at the present time. Said committee to report at next Conference.

3. That the express effort this year be upon religious education in the spiritual truths of our Church that our people may be more firmly grounded in the doctrines of Methodism and may not so easily be led astray by the nostrums of erratic religious leaders.

CHARITIES AND REFORMS

The Committee on Charities and Reforms submits the following report:

We recommend the work of the Washington and Idaho Childrens Home Finding Societies.

Realizing the need for a recognition of the Bible in the educational system of the state, therefore, we pledge our support to the Bible Fellowship League of the State of Washington. We request the appointment of M. J. Perdue, L. Morgan Chambers, and H. J. Wood as a committee to co-operate with this league.

We recommend that the conference request the United States Senate and House of Representatives to pass the following resolutions and that the secretary convey our request—Res. 31, proposing a Constitutional Amendment authorizing Congress to enact uniform laws on the subject of marriage and divorce.—Res. 131 an amendment prohibiting polygamy and polygamous cohabitation in the United States; and H. R., 9753, to secure Sunday as a day of rest in the District of Columbia. We request, in view of the approach of a session of the State Legislature the appointment of M. H. Marvin, L. Morgan Chambers and C. C. Curry as a committee to co-operate with other social agencies in support of all efforts for good legislation.

Signed

B. C. GALLAHER, Chairman

CENTENARY HOUR REPORT

We recommend:

That in view of the world need to which the heart of Methodism responds, the Conference accepts our apportionment in the campaign for $2,000,000.

That the District Superintendent shall be the responsible leader of his district, having associated with him a committee of two ministers and two laymen. These shall make the apportionments to the charges, and lead in the presentation and execution of the plan.

That, in case of an existing centenary deficiency of a charge, all amounts raised may be applied on that deficiency. In case the regular quota has been met the amount may be added as a special gift.

JOHN G. LAW

MINISTERIAL SUPPLY

H. O. PERRY moved, that it is the sense of this Conference that each minister make it his business to seek out young men and place before them the great opportunities of the ministry; that as ministers we realize that the call of the Church may be the call of God.

WOMEN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The work of the women in this organization for the womanhood and childhood of America, is a factor too large to go without due recognition, or to fail to receive the merited encouragement of the ministry of our great church.

When we realize that this organization of over four hundred thousand Methodist women is employing over one thousand missionaries and deaconesses, in carrying on its orphanages, homes, schools, and hospitals, training schools and mission centers throughout the country, we come to appreciate in some measure what the Women's Home Missionary Society means to Methodism and to America.

Although about one hundred and twenty out of over one hundred and fifty charges in this conference have no part whatever in this phase of the work of the church, the thirty that are organized with a membership of 1,281 women, besides young people and children, have raised during the year the sum of $5,417.29, which exceeds any amount raised in previous years. A part of this amount was used in carrying on the work among the Japanese women in Spokane, and a part in cash and supplies for some of our own needy ministers.

With these facts in mind, we recommend that our churches be opened to representatives of this society, in order that our women may become informed of the needs of the womanhood and childhood of our country, see the opportunity for service, and have a part in the ochievements of this great society, and that auxilleries be organized wherever practicable.

Respectfully submitted

THE WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The value and efficiency of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society has been so evident that we heartily endorse its work. In as much as they are now emphasizing the educational work, both at home and abroad, and urging the women of American Methodism to assume their responsibility of saving those who know not our Lord, which proportion is one American Methodist women to win thirty-seven to the kingdom of our Christ. We rejoice that they are sending out at least one woman a year from within the bounds of the Columbia River Conference.

WHITE CROSS

RESOLVED, That we heartily endorse the White Cross Movement as an agency for the free and discount service of the hospitals of this conference.

That we hereby pledge ourselves to observe November 26 as Hospital and White Cross Sunday and endeavor to enroll our membership and constituents as members of the White Cross and remit all funds to such persons as may be entitled to receive them.

B. E. KOONTZ, Chairman.

METHODIST WORK IN STATE INSTITUTIONS

We heartily approve of the aggressive efforts being made in our State Institutions for the religious and educational life of the young people.

We would encourage the leaders in these enterprises to develop in every way the efficiency and scope of the work.

We nominate F. L. Wemett and W. F. Corkrum to fill vacancies of the Wesley Foundation of the State College of Washington.

We recommend that after this year that part of the Conference Educational collection which comes from the Panhandle of Idaho shall go to Gooding College.

JOHN G. LAW, Chairman.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

Your Committee on Epworth League desire to submit the following report:

The Epworth League is an organization of young people, for young people, by young people for the purpose of giving expression to their religious life in worship and service. As such it deserves the cordial support of every pastor. We urge the pastors to organize a League on every charge.

We rejoice in the success of the various Institutes held this year and heartily concur in the action of the conference in planning to secure permanent grounds for a central Institute.

We would recommend that the Epworth League be given a large place in the program of each District and duly recognized at the various District meetings.

We recommend that this available resource of the church be more fully utilized by the pastor in the observance of Win-My-Chum Week, Bible and Mission study and the Recreational life of the church.

We further recommend that a Mid-year District Convention be held in each District.

PERMANENT GROUNDS

In view of the fact that there has been appointed a conference commission looking toward a Central Epworth League Institute and the purchase of suitable grounds for it and other religious gatherings which may be held by the Methodist Episcopal church,

Be it, Resolved, that the Commission appointed be empowered to elect Trustees, incorporate, select and purchase such grounds as may be found, such purchase must be confirmed by a two-thirds vote of the commission, it being understood that the purchase shall be properly financed.

H. O. PERRY, for the Commission.

CENTRAL INSTITUTE

WHEREAS, There has been held within the bounds of the Columbia River Conference for several years past a number of small institutes and other summer gatherings, in different sections of the conference territory,

AND WHEREAS, It would seem advisable to unify our efforts so as to make possible a great Central Epworth League Institute.

BE IT RESOLVED, That it is the sense of this conference that there be appointed a conference commission whose business it shall be to make possible such a central institure and looking toward the purchase of suitable grounds.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

The Committee on Resolutions submits the following for your approval and adoption:

1. The Columbia River Conference is sincerely grateful for the presidency of our resident Bishop, William O. Shpard, LL. D. During the years of his leadership, he has given himself with tireless devotion to all our tasks. Through his fraternal spirit and comprehensive administration we arrive at the closing period of another pleasant and profitable Conference. His public addresses have led us into the presence of our Lord and again we have felt the need of a fuller measure of devotion to the work of the ministry. We pray that the Father of us all may give him day by day strength for his tasks.

2. To all those who have contributed to our comfort we return hearty thanks. The lonely worker and the wearied toiler among the city's throng will return again to their tasks refreshed and strengthened through this fine fellowship.

3. We do sincerely appreciate the sacrifice and labor of our Secretary, John Evans, and his assistants; of the Treasurer, the Statistician, and those who patiently and accurately record the doings of the year. All these deserve and have our hearty thanks.

4. We express our heartfelt thanks to the committee on entertainment; to the church and people of Ellensburg, for the splendid provision they have made for all our needs; and especially the ladies of the church for the splendid meals served to us in Kamola Hall, and to the Chamber of Commerce for the pleasure afforded us by the trip around the valley.

5. We are grateful to President Black of the State Normal School for his courtesy in placing at our disposal the splendid sleeping and dining accommodations of Kamola Hall.

We have greatly profited by the vigorous and practical addreses given by Dr. J. Ralph Magee at the Ministers Hour.

7. We are indebted to the representatives of our Boards for bringing the work of the church so effectively before us, and to the representatives of our different institutions in the West for their untiring efforts in behalf of those institutions.

8. We also wish to express our thanks to the press of Ellensburg and Spokane for the publicity given to our Conference.

Memoirs

Rev. George R. Moorehead was born in Esterville, Iowa, July 17, 1863. At the age of 17 he was converted and united with the Church. For some years he was the only Christian in the family; but his prayers and consistent life under a variety of testings resulted in the conversion of five of the family, including father and mother, in one year.

Brother Moorehead attended Simpson College, where he fitted himself for teaching. In 1888 he moved into the state of Washington and for a time taught school in Klickitat county. In 1891 he was received on trial in the Columbia River Conference and was appointed to the Waldron charge which he served two years. In 1893 he was appointed to Monroe and Antelope, where he served two years. During this pastorate he was united in marriage to Mrs. Levicy A. Daugherty. He then served two years on the Bickleston charge, after which he spent four years in the Portland and Willamette Universities, graduating from the latter in 1901. Immediately he resumed pastoral work, serving most acceptably in the following pastorates:

Dufur, 5 years; Arlington, 1 year; Crook County Mission, 1 year; Madras, 2 years; Arlington, 4 years; Prosser, 4 years; Valley, 3 years. In 1921 he was appointed to Oakesdale, Wash., and had barely entered upon his work there when a surgical operation became necessary. From this she did not recover, and on October 19, 1921, ·ed on to his final reward.

Brother Moorehead is survived by that faithful companion who for more than a quarter of a century shared with him the life of strenuous and efficient service for the Master. To them had been born seven children, four of whom survive, George aged 20, Dan 19, Lois 17, and Virgil 13.

Brother Moorehead was one of God's noblemen, as the writer had good opportunity to know, having been his pastor thirty-two years ago and knowing him intimately since. He was a diligent student of the Word. In his preaching he put the spiritual and ethical standards where the Master put them and then exemplified then in his own life. He was a true citizen of the Kingdom and his virtues those set forth in the Sermon on the Mount.

On October 20, a memorial service under the direction of Dr. N. M. Jones, District Superintendent, was held in Central Church, Spokane, at which a number of the ministers of the Conference paid tributes to the memory of our departed brother.

The remains were taken to Dufur, Oregon, where Dr. Gabriel Sykes of Hood River, delivered the funeral address, being assisted in the service by a number of brethren.—A. S. M.

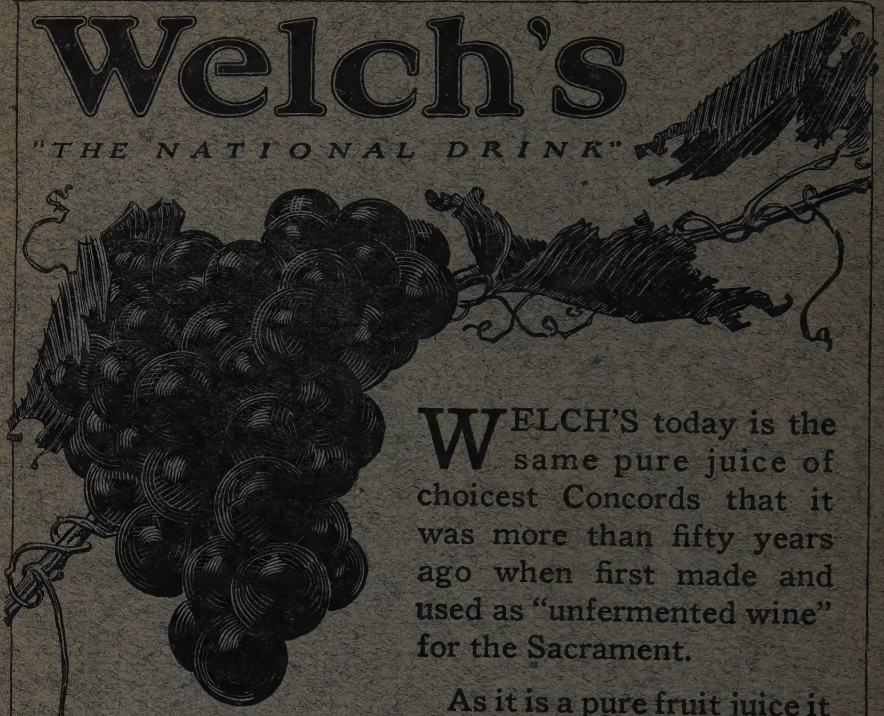
Welch's

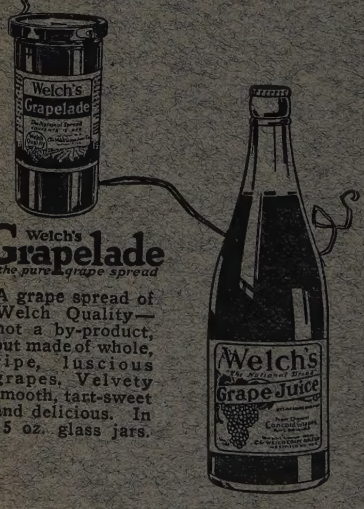
"THE NATIONAL DRINK"



WELCH'S today is the same pure juice of choicest Concords that it was more than fifty years ago when first made and used as "unfermented wine" for the Sacrament.

As it is a pure fruit juice it is well for Church Stewards always to keep Welch's in glass containers. In this way — even though it stands a while before the service — the original flavor of Welch's is retained without the slightest flat or metallic taste.

Welch's is a wholesome drink at the fountain and at home. Sold by grocers and druggists.



Welch's
Grapelade
the pure grape spread

A grape spread of Welch Quality—not a by-product, but made of whole, ripe, luscious grapes. Velvety smooth, tart-sweet and delicious. In 15 oz. glass jars.

The Welch Grape Juice Company, Westfield, N.Y.
